

A Late 19th c. French gold and enamel snake brooch.

Circa: c. 1860

L. 3.7 cm (0 x 1 1/2 inches)

Gold (18k) ; Total weight 7,47 gr

France, c. 1860

This splendid brooch features a snake coiled on itself, its body forming an elegant knot. The head set with an old-cut garnet. The body and head are covered with a refined polychrome enamel perfectly imitating the nuances and reflections of the natural skin of snakes.

Perfect condition.